THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.] ATLANTA, GEORGIA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1870. [VOLUME III---NUMBER 43

Evening Edition.

Atlanta, Georgia, August 10, 1870

Democratic Caucus.

We are requested to say that there will be a meeting of the Democratic members of both Houses of the Legislature in No. 38, Capitol Building, precisely at 8 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is urgently requested.

Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of this Road takes place to-day at Nashville. It is presumed that the stockholders in Georgia and South Carolina are represented.

How Very Like-ly!

The following appeared among the dispatches of the Associated Press, from Washington, received last night and published in our paper this morning:

It can be positively stated that the President and Cabinet are very decided in the opinion that both the laws and a sound public policy demand that an election should be held in Georgia the coming fall. Among the strongest in this belief is the Attorney General, and the attempt to defeat an election is held by a majority of the Cabinet to be a gross outrage.

Of this, Governor Bullock, in his home organ of to-day, says:

The press dispatch from Washington last night in relation to Georgia affairs is purely of a sensational character, and was sent, in all probability, in obedience to instructions from Atlanta. We caution all friends of the National and State administrations against placing any reliance in any dispatches from that point in regard to Georgia affairs, as we have the best reasons for knowing that the President will sustain the action of the Republican members of the Legislature in postponing an election until after the admission of the members of Congress from this State, in accordance with the Reconstruction acts.

And the Intelligencer says:

[QUERY—Other accounts say that the President is either in or en route to St. Louis, and that most of the Cabinet are absent from Washington. If this be so, and we believe that it is, by what authority is the foregoing dispatch transmitted to the Georgia press?]

Now, the people of Atlanta would like to know on what the Governor founds the accusation he makes above. They would also inquire if it is not possible, indeed, highly probable, that General Grant may express his opinion, even if he is en route to St. Louis and his Cabinet are absent. O, Governor! Governor! we know you are in town; we see your tracks.

The Election in North Carolina.

The New York Herald, of the 7th, says:

The Old North State appears to have been too much reconstructed to answer Radical ends. Governor Holden made a bold stroke to save the State to his party by raising the Ku-klux phantom and declaring several strongly Democratic counties in a state of insurrection; but even these desperate measures proved futile, and North Carolina has gone Democratic by ten thousand majority. Both branches of the Legislature are largely Democratic, secures the election of a Democrat to the the United States in the place of Abbott, whose term expires with the present Congress. The Radicals elect only two of the seven Congressmen. This crushing defeat of the Republicans was most unexpected, as it was deemed certain before the election that they would carry at least four Congressional districts, and no fears were entertained concerning the Legislature. Unlooked for as was the result by the North Carolina Republicans, still it is but the natural sequence of the maladministration of affairs in that State. The Republicans placed too little consideration upon the white population, and sought almost exclusively the colored vote. At the South the white man is proverbially uncertain "and nigger is never sure," and the late election proves the North Carolina darkies are no exception to this rule. The white vote was fully cast and nearly solid for the Democratic ticket, but the Republicans appear to have been demoralized and failed to poll their entire vote. Governor Holden's administration is a decided failure; too much of the State legislation was for the benefit of a particular race, instead of the people, and in every department of affairs had become so muddled that any change would be for the better. The Republican party will do well to heed the lesson taught by the North Carolina election. Unless it speedily cuts loose from the narrow-minded, corrupt, fanatical leaders which have brought it to the verge of ruin, other Radical States will as unexpectedly wheel into the Democratic line and that party again be in the ascendency.

EXTRAORDINARY LITERARY WORK.—A man died recently in the Rue Guvier, in Paris, who had labored more than fifty years on a work on humpbacks. He was a wealthy, independent bachelor, with an iron constitution, and the singular man spared no sacrifice, had braved danger and fatigue, to gather the innumerable observations he had gathered in his gigantic work. When his heirs were looking for a will, they found the immense manuscript which he had left. It comprises two thousand sheets, with the most exact drawings of innumerable humps, and calculations and observations on the same. The man had traveled over the world, through Europe, Asia, Africa and America; he had been in Hindostan and Japan, in Nubia and Abyssinia, just for the purpose of studying the humpbacks of those countries. In the temperate zone, in Europe, he found the most of them. The most singular observation made by this eccentric explorer was the fact that the humps have a sort of connection with the formation of the surface of the country where they are found. So the humpbacks in the Pyrenees showed the angular, jagged shape of their mountains, while the humpbacks of the sea coast showed on one side a general descent. In the humpbacks of the plains the humps smooth down gradually on all sides.

☞ A certain queer genius, whose prominent specialty was an aversion to water, happened home late one night, with that peculiar furry sensation about his tongue and tonsils which gentlemen who rejoice in clubs remember as a part of their experience. His wife had left standing on a bureau a tumbler, in which—for some reason known to housewife—she had put a small ball of silk thread to soak. Without observing the fact, Bibulous seized the tumbler and swallowed its contents. Feeling a thread in his mouth, he began pulling upon it. To his horror, yard after yard came stringing forth, until in an agony of excitement he cried out: "Lucy, for God's sake, come here! I'm unravelin."

Take that Back.

Editors Constitution: In your issue of the 5th instant you publish under the head of "The Roll of Infamy" the names of twenty Georgia Senators, who recently voted for Mr. Smith's prolongation resolution, among which I find that of

"william henry, Walker county."

Now, Mr. Editor, the good old county of Walker may have had to suffer many and great indignities, and has had to endure many hardships in the history of the past, but "she is guiltless of this sin." MR. H. never lived within her limits.

Walker county has a voting population of nearly two thousand, (white,) and a territory of over five hundred square miles, including some of the finest farming lands and the richest and most extensive mineral deposits in the State. Her farmers and mechanics are industrious, her merchants honest, her professional men faithful and capable, her ministers are able and zealous, while

"Her girls are the truest,
Their eyes are the bluest,
Of any the world ever saw."

She has furnished to the State more of the talent that has shaped the destinies of the country than any county in North Georgia, perhaps. She pays annually her thousands into the State Treasury. And always at the polls she rolls up her majority of hundreds for the cause of Democracy and law.

And while she thus cheerfully performs her duty with unswerving fidelity to the State, she asks, and is denied, the poor privilege of constructing for herself a railroad through her territory, to develop her unprecedented mineral and agricultural resources—her coal, iron and petroleum, her cotton, corn and wheat—whilst for every other section of the State not only can charters be had for the asking, but State aid is freely given. She thinks this hard; but she has endured it all without a murmur. But she begs you, Mr. Editor, not to "add insult to injury" by publishing to the world that the man who deliberately takes the seat in the Senate which his betters denied him—takes the oath he himself says perjures him—the man who votes to prolong the term he is not entitled to—lives in Walker. For God's sake, Mr. Editor, take it back. Tell your tens of thousands of subscribers that william henry does not live in WALKER.

Palmetto Agricultural Society.

PALMETTO, GA., August 8, 1870.

Editors Constitution: The Agricultural Society of Palmetto convened on the 6th instant, and awarded to Rev. S. P. Steed and W. F. Divine, Esq., premiums for producing the largest quantity of wheat per acre. The former bore off the palm as he did last season, raising near forty bushels to the acre.

We have had fine showers of rain and the prospect for an abundant yield of cotton and corn is very flattering. Some of our farmers report two hundred bolls on some stalks of their cotton.

Our town continues to thrive and bids fair to be an excellent market for trade. Mr. James C. Smith has almost completed a fine brick business house, sufficiently spacious for two large stocks of goods, and erected with an eye to taste and comfort. The citizens of the community and members of the M. E Church are preparing to build a large and beautiful church, which, when finished, will be an ornament to our town. The members of the Baptist Church are remodeling their church also.

There is considerable excitement with regard to the prolongation measure. Every one is for, or apparently anxious for an election in November, and the people seem determined to hold one at all hazards. Respectfully, ROSCOE.

The State Road.

That the earnings of the Western and Atlantic Railroad are stolen, or—to use a milder phrase, but which is the same in substance—are embezzled, cannot now admit of a doubt. When this assertion is made, we are challenged for the proof, and are pointed to the report of the committee which recently investigated the affairs of the road and failed to detect any defalcation. They failed to detect and report defalcations or any embezzlement of the funds of the road because they did not desire to make a report which would injure the party to which a majority of the committee belonged.

There is one fact true beyond controversy, which can be ascertained by any one who will take the trouble to make the inquiry at the office of the Treasurer of this State, and which establishes the fact of embezzlement so conclusively that it is beyond the power of denial. The particular officer or officers who are guilty are not known; but the fact of embezzlement exists, and it is known in this way that it does exist.

Under former administrations of the road, it never failed to pay into the Treasury of the State, monthly, from $40,000 to $50,000, except during the time it was destroyed by Sherman's army, and the time necessary to repair it. When in running order, it never failed to pay into the Treasury less than $40,000 per month, except under the present administration.

Now, for the last six months it has not paid one cent into the treasury. This fact can be established by inquiry at the treasury.

If the money is not embezzled, what has become of it? Is it in the treasury of the State road, and kept there to be paid over to the State Treasurer in due time? The committee of investigation has not so reported. If it is there the committee failed to find it.

That it is appropriated by the officers of the road for their own purposes is a conclusion that follows irresistibly from the facts. And this is the party that wishes to perpetuate itself in power without an election by the people. For what purpose? This inference is as irresistible as the other. Monroe Advertiser.

"FOR YOUNG MEN AND YOUNG WOMEN." The "Young Folks' Rural" is the novel title of the new Rural and Literary Monthly, being issued by H. N. E. Lewis, the publisher of the Western Rural, at Chicago. Prizes are offered for stories and contributions on various subjects by young writers, and fine premiums for clubs of subscribers. Terms, $1 00 per year. The first five hundred subscribers are to be credited for two years. We think this paper must excite a great interest among the young men and young women throughout the United States. Address H. N. THE DAWSON CAR WORKS.—Speaking of this extensive establishment, the Dawson Journal says:

It does one good to visit the Car Works of the Dawson Manufacturing Company. You will find life, activity, and such system in every department as is not often found in so large an establishment. Each department, (and there are quite a number of them,) seems to move like clock work, each man and boy understanding his particular business. Mr. Atkinson, the Superintendent, is certainly the right man in the right place. In the office we found the urbane and gentlemanly President, Major O. O. Nelson, and was much pleased to see the system and regularity displayed in the workings of the Company. The gentlemanly bearing and conduct of the operatives is remarked by our entire community.

The works are now turning out thirty-five to forty box cars monthly, and Major N. tells us he purchased, while in the East a few days since, additional machinery, which will greatly add to the capacity of the works. Nothing contributes so much to the prosperity of our town as these works, and we heartily wish we had a few more such manufacturing companies like the one of which we write. The company now employs over one hundred men and boys, eighty being employed in the car works, the balance at their saw mills.

A KENTUCKY HORSE BRINGS $25,000. The chestnut mare, Purity, formerly Lucy, was sold yesterday by her owner, Wesley P. Balch, Esq., to Mr. Walker, a merchant of New York city and owner of the bay gelding, Henry, for $25,000. Purity will trot for the $20,000 purse at the Buffalo races, August 10, and very probably she and Henry will be entered for the double-team race on the 12th. The mare can be seen from 10 to 12 to-day, before her departure for New York, at the Revere stables, Bowdoin square, and doubtless the opportunity will be improved, as she is one of the finest horses in the country. She was six years old on the 22d of April, and was bred by L. A. Loder, of Petersburg, Kentucky. She was sired by Doyle's Blue Bull, a very fast pacer, he by old Blacknose, also a noted pacer. Purity's dam was by Daniel Boone, he by Tom Crowder, and he by Black Pilot. Thus there are three strains of pacer blood in the mare, crossed with thoroughbred. Robert Bonner looked at her a few days ago, and remarked that she was bred more like Dexter than any other horse he knew of, and was enthusiastic in his praises of her. She was trained by R. S. Strador & Co., of Bulletsville, Boone county, Kentucky, and was not well enough broken when they took her to hold straight over the track. Notwithstanding, a reference to Strador's timing-book shows that she rapidly improved. Her first trial only elicited a speed of 3:17, her second 3:05, after which she gradually came down to 2:33. On Wednesday morning Mr. Balch drove her against a high wind in 2:25 15. She is certainly a most promising young mare, and Mr. Walker has in her a most valuable piece of property.—Boston Post, July 29.

☞ On the 22d of May last, the New York Tribune published the following article from its Washington correspondent in relation to affairs in the South, and what might be expected in the future:

"The manner in which partisan telegrams from the South have been manufactured and published in the North, to further the personal designs of unscrupulous and ambitious men as was well shown up on the developments brought out in reference to the Washington Chronicle during the progress of the recent Georgia investigation. The same game is now going on in connection with the internal affairs of the other Southern States. It is believed that the ensuing elections in the South will result, in some instances, not perhaps in the defeat of the Republican party, but in the defeat of certain individuals who are and have been using that party as a means only to their own selfish advancement. Foreseeing this, the effort is to get up sensational and partisan local law, and local newspapers in the interest of the men alluded to are teeming with accounts of "outrages." This is particularly the case in North Carolina and no surprise need be felt at a daily dish of horrors from that State served up in the Chronicle; "for," said one of the North Carolina Senators, "we intend to use the military, and, in justification, we must get these statements disseminated through the North."

They are using the military in the South at the present time, and the statements of Ku-klux and other outrages is a part of the game disclosed by the Tribune.—Philadelphia Age.

A Marriage in the Knobs!

On the 29th instant, at the residence of ——, in Sevier county, by William Pickens, Esq., Bill Rogers to widow Nancy E. Bailey.

"Jais," says the correspondent who sends us the announcement, "was one of the most extraordinary exhibitions of fortitude and determination on the part of the two persons interested, ever exhibited in East Tennessee. Mrs. Bailey was a widow of two months' mourning. She was fair beyond the usual fairness of her associates. Bill Rogers was, himself, a comely, rough country youth of about nineteen years of age. A week before the marriage, the widow Nancy visited the residence of Bill's maternal parent, and luckily found her in the field and Bill in the house. Nancy is to all intents a practical business woman, and went to work at once. Drawing a stool to Bill's feet, says she, "Bill Rogers, how'd you like to marry?" Says Bill, in reply, "First rate." Says Nancy, straightening herself up and throwing out her magnificent chest, "Bill Rogers, how do you like this?" Says Bill, "Bully." Says Nancy, "Bill Rogers, get the license, and it's yours." Says Bill, "I'll have 'em or die." He was off on the moment for Sevierville, for the license. But, alas! Bill hadn't the necessary sum when he reached the clerk's office to procure the license. So he tramped home again, entered his house before his family, and, without saying a word, took from its rack his rifle gun, and placing it on his shoulder, again left. No one seems to know any further particulars. It is known that Bill got the license, but he brought no gun back with him. At 12 o'clock at night, Esq. Pickens was called for, most imploringly, to perform the marriage ceremonies, and he did it in the most imposing form, before the brilliant pine-knot fire that blazed on the hearth, and in the presence of the select audience who had assembled.

After the vows had been made, and the record rendered that they were man and wife, Bill's first ejaculation was, "Nance, we've had a hard time, but I told you I'd bring 'em. Less go home."

And they went!"—Knoxville Whig.

☞ The question "was any body greased?" is asked since Governor Bullock, of Georgia, pardoned out two robbers with $5,000 stolen funds in their possession, after serving three months. The case has a suggestively oily look.—Nashville Banner.

☞ The result of General Howard's trial for misapplication of the funds of the Freedman's Bureau reminds a cotemporary of the case of the fox, who, "tried by his peers," on the charge of a farmer that he had robbed his hen roost, was acquitted on the ground that "if he was really guilty he would not have ventured into court as he did, with the hen's feathers sticking all over his mouth."—Nashville Banner.

"BAD BLOOD."

"The Life is the Blood."

FROM it we derive our strength, beauty, and mental capabilities. It is the centre of our being, around which revolves all that makes existence happy. When this source is corrupted the painful effects are visible in many shapes, prominent among which is

SCROFULA.

This is a taint or infection of the human organism, and probably no one is wholly free from it. It exhibits itself in various shapes—as Ulcers and Sores, Decayed Bones, Diseased Scalp, Sore Eyes, Weak and Diseased Joints, St. Vitus' Dance, Foul Discharges from the Nostrils, Eruptions, Glandular Swellings, Throat Affections, Rheumatism, Heart Affections, Nervous Disorders, Barrenness, Disorders of the Womb, Dropsy, Syphilitic Affions, Liver Complaint, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Neuralgia, Loss of Manhood and General Debility.

It has been the custom to treat these diseases with Mercury and other Mineral substances, which, though sometimes producing a cure, often prove injurious and entails misery in after life. The long known injurious properties of these so called alterative and purifiers has led the scientific and enlightened man of science to explore the arcana of nature, the result of which has been the discovery of a vegetable product which possess the power of eradicating these Taints from the Blood.

Morning Edition.

Atlanta, Georgia, August 10, 1870

☞ Anointing foot-sore weary waysters is comforting.

☞ The unaccountable disappearance of the earnings of the State Road is a proper subject for investigation. But no more "wayfaring committees," if you please, say the people. They get weary too soon.

☞ No man deserves the name of Democrat or Republican, who would cheat the people of their constitutional franchises. Not only do true Democrats profess faith in the capacity of the people to govern themselves, but they always contend for their constitutional rights.

☞ The completion of the reconstruction of the State of Georgia under the act of Congress of the 15th of July is held in abeyance by a corrupt faction of political tricksters, who, in the face of the letter and spirit of the constitution and laws, are trying to consummate a plot which had its conception in the concubinage of dishonesty with tyranny.

☞ "There's a chiel among them taking notes." Yes, two of them—three of them—many of them. All the people are watching. Don't barter away the people's franchises for a railroad scheme. Don't sell their liberties for an office. Don't take a well "greased" contract in exchange for a reputation for honesty. Don't brand your children with infamy to the latest posterity, for nine dollars a day.

☞ The "prolongation" conspirators propose to deprive the people of their right to choose Assemblymen this fall. They care not whether the Republican party survives a contest at the polls with the Democratic party. Their theme looks wholly to individual aggrandizement and personal thrift. Their manner of urging it and advocating it, and the appliances they use in furthering it, are corrupt and corrupting. The consummation of their plot promises to the people innumerable woes and pecuniary loss—even to public bankruptcy.

☞ The sleek appearance of some people, we wot of, pre-supposes that the "injunction" they have received is as thorough as that with which Aaron of old was blessed, when the ointment ran down upon his beard, even unto the skirts of his garments. The oil used in his case was precious and had a sweet savor of righteousness. But our Aminidab Sleeks have an odor about them very like that which is perceptible near the running gear of railroad cars.

☞ While the "prolongation plot" is agonizing the hearts and exercising the intellects of honest and enlightened Georgians, and many prominent Republicans, and the masses of their party are turning upon the conspirators and nobly working to defeat them, it is strange, but no less true than strange, that there are men claiming to be Democrats, who fawn upon the conspirators. Public suspicion points them out as engaged in stealthily nibbling at the public crib, or licking the "greasy" hands of those who are corruptly dispensing the public treasure.

The Card of Colonel C. W. Styles.

We publish, at Colonel Styles' request, his very emphatic contradiction of the charge made against him by Swayze in his paper. We can, ourselves, state that there is not the shadow of justification for the charge as brought against Colonel Styles. We were present and heard every word uttered by the Colonel, and are positive that his manner and his words were calm and temperate, and did not bear the slightest color of the violence and denunciation imputed to the language employed by him in the meeting referred to.

☞ Representative C. O. Johnson, of Spalding county, says he wishes to be understood to be the father of the free-love bill which was credited to Mr. Franks, of Bibb county, in our issue of yesterday. As it is not Mr. Frank's child, we take back what we said as to him, and wish our readers to apply our remarks to the responsible party, with this additional one, that all good citizens and friends of morality will join us in the heartfelt wish that he (Mr. J.) and others of omnigamous and polygamous convictions would abstain from breeding corruption in the private walks of life. We have enough of it in the management of public affairs. In the sacred precincts of home, "let us have peace," Mr. Johnson.

The Triumph of the Weak.

Have our friends thought on the superhuman patience and endurance of those outraged patriots in North Carolina, who have been in Holden's prison, and handcuffed? Just think of it, that more than one hundred of the best men in that State, without warrant of law, in defiance of law, in fact, have been seized and dragged off from there homes and families, and for weeks have been in the hands of a set of ruffians and cut-throats, utterly powerless and subject to the will of their captors. Let those of us who, all the dreary time of the imprisonment of these men, have been happy at home with wives and little ones, think of what their incarceration has implied, and what agony of spirit it has occasioned to hundreds of anxious and loving hearts. Is it any wonder that men who perpetrate such horrors in time of peace as these victims of Holden and Kirk are suffering, should be denounced and execrated by the whole world, and that their triumph shall only be for a season?

☞ The nonchalance with which some (distinguished for their interest in public affairs in past times,) would have their neighbors to believe they regard the earnestness and anxiety of the people in the present crisis, when a privilege of the most sacred character is about to be corruptly taken from them, is notable as well as amusing. No allusion is here meant to those distinguished leaders of the people who in ante bellum times were wont to dictate party issues, and in the forum, at the hustings and in legislative halls were the representatives of great and patriotic parties. Many of these prudently and wisely abstain from active public participation in politics. It has answered the purposes of fanatics and political mountebanks to malign and abuse them and misrepresent their utterances that corruption and official malfeasance might go unrebuked and unwhipped of justice. When the utterance of honest convictions does injury, the people admire and honor those much misrepresented men for their dignified silence. It is not strange that the people feel towards those tricksters who compound with the enemies of freedom and are silly enough to suppose that nobody suspects their treachery.

A Sop for Radicals Going into Rebellion.

For such, we re-publish an article on prolongation, from the New York Tribune. If party men or those professing to be, can ignore the most open denunciations of such presses as the Tribune, we can see but little use for a party organization. It must be, and the sooner we have believed it, that the Radical element in Georgia are acting in this fight as independent bummers, or at the best, as irresponsible guerrillas.

We have heard it said and reiterated ad nauseam, that the President had fully committed himself to the right of the people to an election next fall.

The whole world knows that the so-called "Georgia bill" passed after a test question had been made of a denial of the right. That bill provides in express terms that no active legislation shall be tolerated cutting off the privilege of an election. Is not this conclusive, and how can law-abiding men see a loop-hole of escape from the faithful execution of this purpose on the part of Congress? It is actually heart-sickening to be obliged to argue seriously and earnestly with men, to induce them to abstain from such wickedness and such venal disregard of an awful responsibility.

Base of Operations of the French Forces.

The base of operations of the French forces forms an acute angle, running east by south and south by west, with headquarters at what might be termed the two extremities. Metz and Strasburg are not really the extremities, the lines extending north of Metz at Thionville and southwest of Strasburg at Colmar or at Belfort.

Beginning at Belfort, the line runs in a northeast direction twenty miles to Mulhouse, or Mulhausen; thence northeast twenty miles to Neuf Brisach, whence it takes a northerly course thirty miles to Strasburg.

Before the recent battle, it continued in a northerly course to Haguenau, seventeen miles from Strasburg, and reached the angle at Lauterburg, eighteen miles distant to the northeast. Here it made a sharp turn, and ran along the river Lauter to Wissenburg, nine miles northwest of Lauterburg. Continuing thence southwest, it next meets Bitche, twenty-two miles off, thence west to Metz fifty-eight miles, thence turning north goes up to Thionville, seventeen miles, where it ends.

This gives a total length of military line of 211 miles. But if we begin at Strasburg, and ignore Belfort, Mulhouse and Neuf Brisach, the length is reduced to 141 miles—a line by no means very long when the immense force concentrated along it is considered, and the great facilities of railroad transportation are taken into the account.

From Bitche to Metz there is no fortified town. South of this line are Phalsburg, Marsal, and other fortified places, that protect and cover the railroad between Nancy and Metz.

Pryor to the battle of Haguenau the news from the seat of war indicated that the French army was principally aligned along the road running from —— to Sarrequemines, Forbach and Thionville, which reduces the length of the line by some fifteen or twenty miles.

If this statement was true, it is highly probable that the Prussians, in attacking the right of the French army, fell upon a minor force, which they easily defeated. In the rear of the right of the French army are the spurs of the Vosges Mountains, which it is not probable that the Prussians will be able easily to pass through, notwithstanding their victory. The recent battle can by no means have involved a very large French force. Unless the French are very greatly demoralized, the Prussians will have to drive back Napoleon's centre or left wing before passing on to Paris. There can be but little doubt that McMahon was outgeneraled, in this, that he had too small a force on the right and relied too much on the topographical advantages in his rear to deter the Prussians from attacking him there. The Prussians have gained the prestige of the first victory—hence, for the present, have greatly the advantage in the morale of their troops.

The North Carolina Election.

Though the returns come in slowly and keep curiosity on tip-toe, we yet have good reason to believe that the friends of law and liberty have achieved a most cheering victory. Five Conservative to two Kirkites on the Congressional ticket, and a decided and available majority in both branches of the Legislature, are the grand results of this most important battle. Of course the men whose rule is now the bitter curse of North Carolina will not suffer this imposing verdict of an outraged and persecuted people to stand if they can reverse it. Frauds such as have disgraced the name and attributes of human nature; scandals on all that was honest, honorable and of good report, have been too rife in every Southern State, for the last five years, to allow us to think for a moment that the miscreant Holden has not already decided on his programme. He will try Hulbert's plan in Georgia: ballot-boxes will be reformed, and votes which the people placed in them will be substituted by those which Holden forged. Threats of prosecution for perjury, and ten thousand other acts of the tyrant, will be tried before Congress will be appealed to. That immortal body is like the devil in more traits than one, which, it is said, distinguishes even him. Beelzebub had rather not act from a bad motive when a good one is just as convenient and will do his work as well.

This his friends say of him; and Congress, following its "illustrious predecessor," will doubtless prefer to have Holden and Kirk do for them what the "Committee on Elections" have so often been called on to do for the party before now. This trifling with oaths, and this abuse of every right enjoyed under the constitution of those out of power, have begun to do their sure work. That the brazen usurpations of men who are tyrants at heart and robbers in principle are disgusting the decency of the whole world, is so obvious that the most hardened and hackneyed among the destructionists begin to see it. Evidences of this letting down of the courage of mercenary and desperate men abound, and very soon the dirty work of party will be placed in commission or farmed out to such preternatural monsters as Holden and his petty devil, Kirk.

But we started to call upon our members of the Georgia Legislature who admire Holden's political purity, and whose hearts are fairly hurting them with desire to see Kirk and his lambs in Atlanta, to pause just a minute and let us reason about this thing a little. Where stands Holden this hour—where every miscreant, black and white, who has stood with him and aided his disgraceful career? Consigned are the last one of them to the bitterest execrations of all honest men while living, and to hopeless infamy when dead. And for what? The game, if it had been secured, would have been the ruin of everybody but themselves, and in the very nature of things must have perished soon with the using. Such success as this is a terror to the soul of every human being not a reprobate, or damned before he is dead. Will these men to whom we appeal not take a lesson from the North Carolina elections, change their tactics, and make the experiment [illegible] much better they may help themselves by doing right. Depend upon it, men who palm off gold-standard and sixty-cent silver, that the wages of sin is death. Liberty will survive you and everything but such an infamy as you are preparing this day for your names and all connected with you. You may postpone the blessed day of peace that shall re-install the good and wise in high places, but you can never accomplish the work you aim to do, to perpetuate the rule of the vicious, the cruel and profligate.

The Situation.

Our able contemporary, the Monroe Advertiser, has the following words of wisdom on the situation, which we commend:

The situation in Georgia is ominous, and calls for wisdom and coolness on the part of those who are to lead the constitutional party to victory. Those who have carefully noted the progress of events in this State, from the assembling of the Convention in 1868 to the recent attempts at plunder and outrage by the Executive and General Assembly, can not deceive themselves with the false hope that there is no danger to the personal and civil liberties of the people of Georgia in the attitude of Bullock and his so-called Legislature. Every movement made and every measure proposed by the Radicals tend to the discomfiture of constitutional liberty.

The situation is serious, but it is not hopeless. It requires simply wisdom, deliberation, and bold caution to overcome the revolutionary projects of the Radicals. These qualities are necessary to success, and we hope to see them displayed in the action of the Convention which assembles in Atlanta on the 17th instant. We repeat and insist upon it with emphasis, that wisdom, careful deliberation and bold caution will be the vital qualities of the coming campaign. Without them, there will be no Democratic triumph.

NEW INVENTIONS IN ARMS.

The Chassepot, Needle-Gun, and the Wall Rifle.

It becomes daily more evident that not only France, but also Prussia, has for a number of years silently but steadily made the most active preparations for the great struggle for European supremacy which has just now commenced between them.

This is not only indicated by a thorough reorganization of both the French and German armies, but also by the immense outlay of both in [illegible] weapons more improved and of greater destructiveness [illegible]

It is claimed by the French that the Chassepot is an improvement on the Zandnadelgewehr, and, as long as the latter served them as a model, they are probably all right there. Besides that, they have introduced into their artillery service a light field piece, a kind of revolving cannon, called the mitrailleuse, said to be most effective against infantry and cavalry.

All of a sudden and heads, however, of several new inventions quietly introduced by Prussia, and first amongst them a gun which can be fired twenty-two times a minutes with ease, and said to be a decided improvement on both the Zandnadelgewehr and Chassepot. In connection with this they have an improved arrangement for carrying 200 rounds of ammunition.

The superiority of this new gun becomes at once self-evident, inasmuch as the present needle-gun can only be fired off about ten or twelve times a minute and a soldier carries only sixty rounds of ammunition.

It is, therefore, at least twice as effective as their present style of needle-gun, and a considerable number of them has already been manufactured and is ready to be distributed among the army. Another new invention of which the Prussians seem to think much is a kind of heavy and very large rifle with a cast-steel barrel four and a half feet long and mounted on two light wheels very much like a piece of artillery.

It is named the wall buechse or wall rifle, probably because a similar very heavy and long rifle has been in use during the middle ages for the defense of the walls and turrets of castles and other fortifications. This wall rifle has been distributed extensively among the infantry, every battalion of which has now a number of them. It is aimed and fired off by a soldier kneeling behind it and catching the recoil, in order to steady the aim, by means of a padded cushion or saddle. The distance at which this new gun carries is very great, the same as that of the heaviest artillery. It shoots with great precision, and seems to be more particularly destined to be used against the enemy's artillery, for the killing of the men serving the guns, their horses, and the explosion of ammunition chests, although it may also be used against infantry and cavalry. The projectile is two and a half inches long, of cast-iron, hollow, and filled with a highly explosive substance. It explodes, however, only when it strikes with its point, which is furnished with a slightly projecting pressure knob pressing a needle into the charge, and thus causing an immediate explosion.

Besides these new inventions numerous improvements have been introduced particularly in the artillery of both nations, and most of them of such a destructiveness to life and limb that this war will probably become the bloodiest on record. New York World.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Revenue today $318,000.

The recent decision of the Treasury Department that vessels arriving in waters of the United States cannot change their clearance papers is adhered to. This is in consequence of some vessels cleared for New York having changed papers to New Jersey ports in order to avoid quarantine regulations.

The following is the whereabouts of the vessels composing the North Atlantic Squadron: the Nantasket and Swaltard are at St. Domingo; the Congress, Dictator and Sangus are at Key West, and seven at Hampton Roads. The Tuscarora is engaged in conveying iron clads from New York to Key West, and the Yantic on taking soundings.

It can be positively stated that the President and Cabinet are very decided in the opinion that both the laws and sound public policy demand that an election should be held in Georgia the coming fall. Among the strongest in this belief is the Attorney General, and the attempt to defeat an election is held by a majority of the Cabinet to be a gross outrage.

RALEIGH, August 9.—Returns come in slowly, but enough is known to put the election of five Democratic Congressmen beyond doubt. Thirty-two State Senators and seventy-five Commissioners are elected by the Democrats, certain, and probably more.

Deputy United States Marshal served on Kirk yesterday writs of habeas corpus, issued by Judge Brooks, to bring his prisoners before him on Saturday. Kirk replied that he would answer after consulting Holden. Twelve mechanics at the company's shops of the North Carolina Railroad, in Alamance county, were arrested yesterday by Boigen, Kirk's lieutenant colonel. The son of Josiah Turner, editor of the Sentinel, was carried to Yanceyville and is now in prison.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 9, 3:30, P. M.—The Paris correspondent of the Manchester Examiner telegraphs that Italy and Austria each send 100,000 to aid France.

The Empress Eugenie, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, is preparing for flight.

The army at Metz is still undergoing a thorough re-organization.

The Times ascribes the French disaster to the Emperor's obstinacy in refusing to send military advice, and to his illness.

The Times says parties in France will make the Emperor pay the penalty of ill success.

His name is already ignored in the acts by which the regency seeks to rally the people; things arrange themselves as if he was not expected to resume his power, as if testing how he may be dispensed with altogether. The only question is who shall first utter the word "abdication."

Edmund About writes from the field bitterly condemning European mismanagement. He says having declared war he will let the Prussians begin it. It is true that neither party was ready to act.

The French lost twenty days in marching and countermarching; they were surprised at Weissenburg by the enemy where there was no videtts to watch; no skirmishers to meet, and no plans to repel.

There was no battle to-day. The corps of Failery, which was not engaged in the recent action, is the rallying point of the army. The proclamation of the minister is received with enthusiasm. The minister of the interior has taken measures to have dispatches bulletined at Bourse and mayoralty houses. Measures will be taken at once for strengthening the fortifications of Paris.

METZ, August 9, 8 P. M.—The army is concentrating to march to Voges and defend the passages. The night is calm. There has been no engagement to-day.

PARIS, August 9.—The Patrie says: The Government calls upon all former officers and soldiers to take their grades in regiments of volunteers, or of the Garde Mobile, which are to go to the front immediately. This request has been greeted enthusiastically, and numbers are responding to the call. Two councils of the Ministry were held to-day. General Changarnier left his residence this morning to go to seek a command at headquarters. Thousands of people accompanied him to the railway.

Levolunteire says General Chanpanier, as soon as he heard of the affair at Weisenburg, telegraphed, asking for a command.

This morning's papers contain nothing certain concerning the course of Austria. Russia is keeping her quiet with promises. The Patrie says it was rumored that the Bourse would be closed to-day at noon, but nothing of the sort has taken place.

There have been no disturbances. The authorities having been warned that the International Society of Workingmen intended to make demonstrations, took precautions to prevent them, which would have been effective if any outbreak was really contemplated.

ROME, August 8.—The embarkation of the French troops, which was completed yesterday, was retarded by the storm. But for this last, all of the troops would have gone several days ago.

The Paris journals announce, with warm approval, that Italy is ready to send 100,000 men to the assistance of France.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, August 9.—The following is a cable special to the Herald:

LONDON, August 9.—A dispatch from Carlsruhe, dated to-day, says that Strasburg is surrounded by an army of 60,000 Prussian troops, mostly from South Germany. The city must surrender, as the garrison is composed of only 7,000 soldiers.

The advance of the Prussian right from Saar Louis to Traves has commenced. It is supposed Prince Frederick Charles is in command.

Jefferson Davis arrived here to-day from Baltimore, and is at the New York Hotel, where he is the recipient of many attentions from Southern guests. He refused to be interviewed.

Foreign.

LONDON, August 9.—The Pall Mall Gazette has assurances from private sources in Paris that the Empire is on the verge of collapse. The German ride expected in Paris. Even if they are arrested in their progress, the Empire is dead.

Letters from Paris say the citizens are defiant of martial law, and continue to assemble in the streets and discuss the war. Authentic advices from France show that Marshal Bazaine, commander-in-chief, has 150,000 men at Metz; McMahon 85,000 at St. Avergne; Cranrobert 50,000 at Nancy.

A rumor has reached here that the Prussians are in Mulhausser, 61 miles southwest of Strasburg.

The Parisians are receiving arms and they are all republicans at heart, and the establishment of a Provisional government is already talked of. The Orleanists, through Generals Chaugrnie and Trachu, are in the ascendent, and eminent Imperialists are leaving France.

PARIS, August 9.—The Minister of the Interior has issued a proclamation announcing, according to the terms of the law of 1849, on the declaration of a state of seige, the military authorities have a right to interdict all publications of a nature to excite or keep up disorders. As such a proposition as that made by the Seicle, to institute a committee of defense, tends to anarchy and compromises unity of action, creating useless agitation, on advice of the Council of Ministers, it is decreed that military authorities shall apply a prescription measure to any journal renewing such proposition.

The Republican and Democratic journals advise the immediate meeting of the Corps Legislatif and the arming of the people. They all censure strongly the disorder which has taken place in the streets, and counsels calmness and moderation. The Deputies to the Corps, now in Paris, met yesterday afternoon, and called upon the Empress.

There is great activity in the enrolling of volunteers in all parts of the city.

Thirty-three thousand workmen are strengthing the fortifications, assisted by twenty thousand sailors from the navy.

The Gaulais says false news of victory was disseminated in the streets of Strasburg last week, and some how it was sent out from here. Thir was a preconcested attempt to deceive the nation.

The Journal Officiel contains the following notices and decrees: Minister Washburn was received yesterday by the Empress for the purpose of delivering a reply to President Grant to letters recalling Minister Berthemy.

The departments of Cate Dor, Soone, San Lociaen and Rhone are declared in a state of siege.

The following report was telegraphed from Metz yesterday at 10:15 A. M; The corps of Gen. Failery, which was not engaged in the recent actions is rallying in front of the army; it has not been disturbed. Marshal McMahon has executed the movements prescribed for him.

There has been no engagement to-day.

The proclamation of the ministers is received with enthusiasm. The decree relative to the incorporation in the ranks of the National Home Guard of all citizens between the ages of 30 and 40 years, who do not already belong to some military organization, convokes all chiefs of corps and prescribes measures for the immediate rearmament of guard with guns altered to breach loaders. In sections where the national guard has not heretofore been organized, chiefs of battalions are appointed, and, thanks to the efficiency of the measures taken, the organization of the National Guard will soon extend to every part of France. In the department of Oeine, where that organization is strongest, it has already given proof of devotion and patriotism which cannot be changed by circumstances through which we are passing.

On demand of the Minister of War, the Prefect of Seine, this morning, charged the engineers of the municipal service with the execution of plans for strengthening the fortifications of Paris. The service will be organized at once and divided between three chief engineers and eleven assistants. Each chief will be in charge of an arrondissement. The Prefect commits the chief supervision of the entire works to Inspector General Alphand. At 2 o'clock yesterday, in the presence of Generals and Colonels, the directors of fortifications opened negotiations with considerable contractors of Paris. These contractors said they would make no conditions, but placed their fortunes, their personal services their material and their experience at the disposal of the authorities for the protection of Paris.

The officials and engineers at once took possession of the workshops offered by the contractors.

Last night posters were distributed over the city inviting citizens between the ages of 30 and 40 years to present themselves within three days at Mayoralty House for enrollment in the National Guard. As soon as the enrollment is completed, the distribution of arms will commence.

The Corps Legislatif met to-day.

The order of the day was directed against the ministry. It was proposed by Clement Durernis, and adopted by a large majority.

Minister Ollivier asked for a suspension of setting for a few minutes.

The proclamation of martial law was rather a precautionary than imperative measure, and its rigorous enforcement is not contemplated.

The official journal, after describing the resources and patriotic spirit of the nation which has always been an obstacle to Prussian ambition, asks what other power would like to see Prussia making to the north of the Baltic sea and Prussian lakes, invading smaller States and acquiring dangerous preponderancy, which signs are already apparent.

England is satisfied with Calegoric's assurances of France, and hastens to render secure the northern frontier of France by causing the Belgian neutrality to be respected.

In Sweden, Norway and Denmark the popular feeling is with France, and the Emperor of Russia gives proofs of the best understanding with France. Austria and Italy are arming, and will cause embarrassment to Prussia. French diplomacy is not more idle than French arms will be, and France will prove she has not degenerated in 1870.

METZ, August 9.—The enemy is, in a large measure, concentrating in front of Metz.

Marshal Bazaine will have the direction of operations.

The corps of General Frassard has retired in good order on Metz.

All has been quiet during the night.

The Emperor has just gone to the general headquarters of Bazaine.

General Changarnier has arrived here. He was conducted from the railway station to the Prefectureate by honorable citizens. The General was in civilian's dress. He was immediately taken into the presence of the Emperor. The public opinion here receives with favor the advent of General Changarnier.

BERLIN, August 9.—The losses of the French in the battle of Woerth on Saturday were 5,000 dead, wounded and missing, and 6,000 prisoners. McMahon's baggage, many cannon and two large railway trains with stores and munitions were captured. The Prussian cavalry in their pursuit tagged 1,000 stragglers who had thrown away their arms. The total Prussian loss is 3,500 dead and wounded.

HAMBURG, August 9.—The River Elbe is closed to prevent the entrance of the French fleet, but small passage is still left open at Goose for Inland steamers to traffic.

General Trochen has entered upon his duties as Major-General of the army.

It is not known whether Marshal Leboeuf will have any command.

☞ It may be interesting to the lovers of that great national game, draw poker, to know that the Indians at Corinne play the game, using squaws to "ante" with. Squaws ought to make good "aunties."

☞ General Sherman states that the reports of his adjutants show that the actual force of the rank and file of the army to-day is 34,953. The number will be gradually reduced to 30,000.

OUR merchants are doing a lively business at present.

THE Senate will meet at ten o'clock this morning, the old hour, and adjourn at one o'clock.

THIRTEEN one-story houses were struck by lightning, so it is reported, in Atlanta on Monday.

WE learn that the broom factory, on Decatur street, yesterday, purchased from a gentleman below the city, 500 pounds of broom corn at 20 cents per pound.

THE report that Rev. Dr. Dozier had retired from the field as State Lecturer of the Order of Good Templars is not wholly true. He has only retired temporarily. We hope soon to see him in the field and "himself again."

WE invite special attention to the card of George M. Logan, Commission Merchant, of Macon. General Logan sells exclusively on commission, and shippers will find it to their interest to send their produce to him if they desire quick sales and speedy returns.

IT was rumored on the streets yesterday evening that Ed. A. Werner, Esq., had been appointed General Freight Agent of the Georgia Railroad in this city. Mr. Werner is thoroughly competent, reliable and energetic, and will be the right man in the right place.

THE attention of planters and dealers in cotton is specially directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Grover, Stubbs & Co., Cotton Factors and General Commission Merchants of Savannah. They are reliable and energetic business men, and are well posted on the subject of cotton. Give them a call.

MR. LOCAL: Please ask the police to abate a nuisance at or near the corner of Decatur and Forsyth streets. A negro grocery at this point collects a gang of blacks who use ribald and obscene language, and crowd the sidewalks to the discomfort and inconvenience of lady passers-by. SOL.

MR. LOCAL: What do you mean by saying "Mr. Speer, from Pike county, is a sharp fellow?" TOM.

Is it necessary, Tom, that the spear or pike should be sharp enough to go clear through you in order for you to discover "the point?"

MESSRS. Langford & McCrath are agents for the sale of the celebrated Charter Oak Stove, of established fame. They also are manufacturing and putting up a superior lightning rod, and as recent events demonstrate forcibly the beneficial results of lightning rods, we advise our readers to give Messrs. Langford & McCrath a call.

TWO hundred and seventy-five agricultural societies in the State have appointed delegates to the agricultural convention assembling here on the 16th instant. The delegates will average three to a society. It will be a large and imposing convention. The city fathers should take action Friday night to make the convention a success.

WE learn that one of the houses on Williams street, belonging to J. L. Dunn, was struck by lightning during the thunder storm on Monday. The house was badly injured, and a lady inside of it also injured. Both of her shoes were torn into shreds. She is under medical treatment and considered out of danger.

SUNSET yesterday was a grand and sublime spectacle. The clouds were tinged with inoffable beauty—a glorious sheen of carmine and gold, defying the art of man to pencil or portray. It was a scene that appealed to the soul of every lover of the beautiful, as demonstrating that "Beauty was lent to Nature as the type of Heaven's unspeakable and holy joy."

BOARD OF HEALTH.—The members of the Board of Health are requested to meet at my office, Granite Block, to-day at 4½ o'clock P. M.

Parties who may have matter to report having reference to the sanitary condition of the city will please do so at the time and place designated, in order that it may receive prompt consideration.

J. N. SIMMONS,
Chairman Board of Health.

MESSRS. STEPHENS, FLYNN & Co. have removed across the street from their late stand on Forsyth street, to the store recently occupied by John H. King, where they hope to meet all their old friends and a host of new ones. They still keep on hand large stocks of grain, provisions, hay, lime, salt, liquor, etc., and the celebrated Champion Mills brand of Flour. Give them a call at their new stand.

WE learn that a straight-out-dyed-in-the-wool Republican meeting will be held at the City Hall to-night, in opposition to the rebellious proclamation resolutions of Tweedy, Campbell, Blodgett, Bullock & Co. Colonel James Atkins, collector of internal revenue, Hon. H. P. Farrow, Attorney General of Georgia, Hon. James L. Dunning, Senator from the 35th district, George S. Thomas, Esq., and other "red-hot" Radicals, will address the meeting. It is rumored that they will take strong ground against the rebellion.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, August 8, 1870.—Colonel D W. Lewis, Secretary Georgia State Agricultural Society—DEAR SIR: Wishing to encourage competition of our Georgia ladies in domestic department, we hereby offer for the two best gallon jars of preserves made by a Georgia lady and exhibited at our state fair in October next, a premium of a fine tapestry Brussels carpet of the value of one hundred dollars, to be selected from our carpet-store by the successful competitor.

Yours, respectfully,
CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO,
Corner Whitehall and Hunter Streets.

LAST spring the editors of the Plantation kindly furnished this writer with several packages of Ramie seed, sent out from the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Although having failed last year in a similar attempt, the writer sowed the seed in a small box, and after patient waiting has been successful. The plants are now seven or eight inches high, and growing finely. Whether others succeeded with the seed, the writer does not know, but is of the opinion that this is the first instance reported of the seed germinating.

WE are pleased to note the deep and heart-felt feeling in Atlanta in favor of the establishment of a first-class female college, free from sectarian bias, and one that will rise to the dignity and usefulness of a university. We believe that the sentiment is shared by all our people. In a meeting of citizens yesterday, where nearly all denominations and interests were represented, we were delighted to see, but one common desire actuate them. Atlanta should and must have a female university. We see no reason why our sons should enjoy better and higher educational facilities than our daughters. And we are firmly convinced that $500 000 devoted to such an institution in our midst will repay the present generation ten-fold for the outlay. Ca fra.

WE cannot allow our bright-eyed belles to sink to that "parlous" state of being old-fashioned. Whatever Emperor is victorious in the European war, no matter how the price of cotton may fluctuate, or whether Colfax's baby lives or dies, our belles must be kept in the front rank of fashion. With this view we hasten to inform them of the doom of the chignon. It has received its death-blow. Henceforth those portable frowsy bolsters are to be banished from good society and their place supplied with a bunch of enormous braids, which hang down the back in huge loops, like curtain cords. They can, fortunately, be purchased ready-made, so the ladies have no excuse for not being in style. As for taste or elegance in the new fashion—that is a matter of no importance whatever.

☞ A wild cat attempted to take a baby out of its cradle in a cabin near Mankato, Minnesota, but a little black-and-tan dog attacked the catamount and fought it until the mother came in and drove the wild beast out with a brand of fire.

☞ There is an effort being made to acquit the Baltimore negro who murdered his wife, on the ground that he was a man of "good moral character."

☞ Omaha claimed seven republicans, and only seven babies. Twins was the wild $5,000 that didn't count.

☞ At Toledo, Ohio, a woman has died of lockjaw from running a nail in her toe. It was not a toe-nail, but a shingle-nail.

☞ The oldest man in Tennessee is Mr. William Overton, of DeKalb county. He is now 118 years old.

☞ A Boston paper has an article headed "The Future of Boston." Any one who has ever attended Sunday school ought to know all about the future of such wicked places.

☞ Attorney-General Akerman has sent copies of the act enforcing the rights of the United States to vote to all the United States attorneys, marshals and clerks of courts. Several copies were sent to each office.

☞ A Virginia editor wrote something about his "Alma Mater," and the compositor set it up "alum water." The funeral of the compositor was quite largely attended by his brother printers. The editor has been exonerated.

☞ And now they have started a story that an Oswego editor had his pocket picked of fifty dollars and a gold watch. That is worse than the story last week about a thief getting away with a hundred dollars belonging to a Methodist minister. When will these financial canards about editors cease?

☞ A buxom young lady of Pekin, Illinois, a few days since secured a divorce from her third husband, and in seven hours later had started on a bridal tour to the East with her fourth husband. The most remarkable circumstance connected with the matter is that the courting, proposal and marriage of No. 4 were accomplished within the time stated.

☞ An Indiana paper says the warden of the State prison is making arrangements "to do the cooking of the convicts by steam." They will find that convicts fried or roasted by the old method have a better flavor than when cooked by any newfangled invention.

They say there is a man in California who can ride twenty-seven miles in a straight line on his own land. That's nothing. We know a man in Wisconsin, a relative of ours, who can ride a hundred and fifty miles, and not go over an acre of his own land. "Shoo fly," Mr. Californian.

MARIETTA, GA., August 9, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & Co—Gentlemen: You will please ship us another supply of your invaluable Female Regulator, and forward bill per mail.

We are happy to state that this remedy gives better satisfaction than any article we sell. We have been selling it since 1868, and witnessed many remarkable cures by it. Among others there was a lady friend of ours who was sallow and sickly until she was twenty-six years old, at which age she married; her husband lived two years and died; she continued in bad health; in fact, she has never been what a woman ought to be. A few months after the death of her husband she saw your advertisement, and came to our store and bought a bottle of your Regulator from us, and took it according to directions. It has cured her sound and well, brought her regular monthly periods on, and to-day she is a hearty, blooming widow, with the use of but two bottles of your Regulator, costing her only three dollars, when she had tried several physicians and spent a great deal of money without any benefit.

Wishing you great success with your valuable remedies, we are respectfully, yours, etc. W. ROOT & SONS.

FACE LAYING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—When fast life has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and taken the rose of health from the cheek—when the head trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which that result has been successfully accomplished by the regular and persistent use of PLANTATION BITTERS. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not sufficient of itself. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to arouse the corporeal and mental energies from their state of collapse, and to good work it is the mission of the Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

FALSE PRETENCES.—The vast and continually increasing sales of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have provoked the envy of a certain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their utterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These impostors hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great American Tonic, a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighbors profitable. As the demand for Hostetter's Bitters is now so large and urgent as to tax to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to wring in the merest trash by false representations, are of little consequence to its proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at this warm season, when a real invigorant is greatly needed, the sufferer from general debility, indigestion, biliousness or nervous weakness, is coaxed into using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue, instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined, it is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. It is in the interest of the parties who have been or may be influenced by the persuasion of plausible charlatans, that this article is published. With the light of twenty years experience to guide him, why should the invalid take a leap in the dark?

FOR upwards of a century there has been known in Germany one panacea for general debility, nervous diseases, despondency, impaired digestion, &c., &c., which, while it was entirely harmless to the most delicate persons, was known to be a most powerful remedial agent where the system required a tonic or invigorator, and which could be relied upon. That preparation, at considerable expense and trouble, Messrs. Jacob Lippman & Bro., of Savannah, Ga., have succeeded in getting the right to manufacture in the United States, and is now universally known and used as Lippman's Great German Bitters.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb28-d6w6m

READ

IT is well known to Doctors and to Ladies, that that Women are subject to a class of diseases peculiar to their sex, such as Suppression, Irregularities, Retention, Hemorrhages or Excessive Flows, and Whites, Prolapsus or Falling of the Womb.

These diseases have seldom been treated successfully. The profession were taught diligently for some remedy that would enable them to treat these diseases with success.

At last, that remedy has been discovered by one of the most skilful physicians in the State of Georgia. That remedy is

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

It is purely vegetable, and is put up in Atlanta, Georgia, by BRADFIELD & CO.

It will purify the blood and strengthen the system, relieve irritation of the kidneys, and is a perfect specific for all the above diseases, as certain a cure as Quinine is in Chills and Fever.

For a history of diseases, and certificates of its wonderful cures, the reader is referred to the wrapper around the bottle. Every bottle warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.

LAGRANGE, GA., March 26, 1870.

BRADFIELD & Co., Atlanta, Georgia:

DEAR SIRS: I take pleasure in stating that I have used, for the last twenty years, the medicine you are putting up known as DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the prescription, both as a practitioner of medicine and in domestic practice, and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope that every lady in our whole land, who may be suffering in any way peculiar to their sex, may be able to procure a bottle, that their sufferings may not only be relieved, but that they may be restored to health and strength.

With my kindest regards, I am, respectfully,
W. B. FERRELL, M. D.

We, the undersigned Druggists, take pleasure in commending to the trade Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR—believing it to be a good and reliable remedy for the diseases for which he recommends it.

DR. PROPHITT'S
Celebrated Liver Medicine.

It is purely vegetable, and will act upon the Liver and Kidneys as promptly as Calomel and Buchu, without any danger of salivation or de-truction of the bones.

Parties taking this medicine need not fear getting wet, or any other reasonable exposure.

Symptoms of Liver Disease:

Headache, Dull Feeling or the Blues, Sour Stomach, Sick or Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Bad or Bitter Taste in the Mouth, coated tongue, Pain in the Shoulder, and is darker than usual, Costiveness, Melancholy Feelings, Cramps, Cold Feet, Colic, Dysentery, or Diarrhœa, Chills and Fever, and Piles. In fact, where the Liver is out of order, you are liable to every disease that is not contagious.

Prophitt's Liver Medicine, if taken properly, will prevent and cure any disease resulting from a deranged Liver.

It will regulate its functions and thus cure all diseases caused by the failure of its healthy action.

It has been used for a great number of years, and has given universal satisfaction.

There is no brother or son claiming to have the original receipt. It is put up in both Powder and Fluid form.

FAIRBURN, GA., September 4, 1866.

DR. O. S. PROPHITT:

SIR: My wife has been an invalid for fifteen years. Doctors all agreed she had "Liver Disease." In connection with their practice she used various nostrums, none of which seemed to do any good. Sometime ago I procured a bottle of your "Liver Medicine," of your agent here, C. A. Harvey, which being given according to directions, has effected a complete cure.

Respectfully, etc.,
GEO. L. THOMPSON.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., September 24, 1868.

I have used Dr. O. S. Prophitt's Liver Medicine as a tonic, and found it to be powerful and efficacious. It is excellent for functional derangement of the Liver or constipation of the bowels; in most cases superseding the necessity of a regular course of medicine.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, July 18, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—Last year, during my travels in Alabama and Southwest Georgia, I contracted chills and fever, and my general health became very bad. I tried various remedies, and among others Shallenberger's Pills—all to no purpose. I was troubled with intense pain in the small of my back, and for months I did not have a moment's rest. I had well nigh despaired of recovering, when a friend recommended me to take Dr. Prophitt's Liver Medicine. I did so, and one bottle has cured me; and to-day I feel like another man. I consider it one of the best medicines for general use now put up, and, without any reservation, recommend it to the afflicted. I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours, etc.
O. M. HARRALSON.

DR. PROPHITT'S DYSENTERY CORDIAL

Is one of the most valuable compounds now put up for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum, or Cholera Morbus.

This medicine has been in use for years, and gives universal satisfaction.

The most delicate child may take it with impunity.

COVINTON, GA., November 9, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Having a severe attack of Dysentery during the past summer, I was induced to use your Dysentery Cordial, and derived therefrom immediate and permanent relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this remedy to all who may be so attacked, believing that, should the directions be followed, relief would surely be obtained.

Truly, etc., O. S. PORTER.

DR. PROPHITT:

DEAR SIR: Your Liver Medicine and Pain Kill It is a complete success. J. L. WHITTLE.

WEST POINT, GA., August 11, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. O. S. Prophitt's Liver Medicine myself and in my family, for twelve months or more, and I unhesitatingly say that I believe it one of the best Family Medicines in use. M. T. WALKER.

PROPHITT'S
PAIN KILL IT.

This is the celebrated medicine that run Perry Davis' Pain Killer out of the market, wherever it was sold. Davis made Prophitt change the name from Pain Killer to PAIN KILL IT.

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or pain of any kind, it has no equal.

For Cuts, Bruises, Burns, or old Sores, it is the best thing you can use as a dressing.

For SNAKE BITES or STINGS of POISONOUS INSECTS, it is a perfect ANTIDOTE.

It is good for Colics, Colds, Coughs, or Bowel Complaints. Its name indicates its nature fully. It is truly DEATH to pain.

Manufactured and sold by BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Georgia, and for sale by all Druggists.

DOOLY COUNTY, GA., April, 1867.

This is to certify that I was confined to the house, and most of the time to my bed, and suffering the greatest agony imaginable with Rheumatism, for five months, and after trying every available remedy, was induced to procure one with two bottles of Dr. O. S. Prophitt's Anody ne Pain Kill It; each costing fifty cents only. It relieved me almost instantly. I therefore recommend it in the highest degree to those suffering from similar disease. I can say that it is one of the finest Family Medicines now out certain.

Yours truly, W. A. FOREHAND.

DOOLY COUNTY, GA., October 21, 1867.

DR. O. S. PROPHITT:

I have, during the last eighteen months, used your Pain Kill It, and I consider it unequalled by anything for pain in the head, breast, back or side; and for colic, nothing gives relief half so quick as your Anodyne Pain Kill It.

It is doing much good in the community in other families as well as my own.

Yours, etc., J. D. T. FOREHAND.

"ON THE FLY."

The following, to the tune of "Old Oaken Bucket," is now in order:

How dear to the heart is the green-covered ball field,
Where good rival captains their men rightly place.
The pitcher, the catcher, the right-field and left-field,
The good men, the true men, who guard well each base,
The short stop so lively, the center field so handy,
The ball, and the striker who aims to send high!
But dearer than all, to the hearts of good fielders,
Is the leathern-clad base ball we catch on the fly.
The jolly old base ball—the well covered base ball!
The leathern-clad base ball we catch the fly.

THE GREAT REPUTATION

TOMMEY
AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE
And the Large Numbers of Testimonials, Received from Physicians, and Persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.
AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,
IT HAS NO EQUAL.
BEING POSITIVELY
The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.
DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.
"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and this many times very obvious, this or bad blood is founded in truth.
The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and if not long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.
When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.
SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.
A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellow, dark-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dizziness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough, unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; complexion of the yellow, dirty, tallowy; coldness of the extremities, etc.
The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.
Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.
DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.
Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healthy action.
Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.
When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or sediment is found in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or neglected, but KOSKOO should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, proves irritating to the bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.
KOSKOO!
DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,
Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to the prostration of mental depression, and fatal loss, accruing of the brain, causing, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, to-bacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.
The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:
A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes severe pain or headache; Periodical Blindness, Sparks before the Eyes, Noises (or Ringing) in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.
KOSKOO

Liver Invigorator!
STANDS UNRIVALLED.
Being the only KNOWN Medicine
that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DERAILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

ROSADALIS!
OSADALIS
THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.
Read the testimony of Physicians, Druggists, and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.
Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:
I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made. It is a most excellent compound of alterative ingredients.
Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleanser of the Blood I know no better remedy.
James G. McFadden, Manufacturer, Tenn., says:
I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.
Benjamin Bonthel, of Lima, Ohio, writes: I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.
Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.

BUILDING PAPER.
This is a hard, compact paper, like an ordinary book-cover, and is saturated with tar and dried on the outside of frame buildings; under the clapboards and weather boarding, it makes the cheapest, most durable and warmest lining for walls, and keeps out damp, cold and heat. Ants also keep out of the house, not saturated, instead of plastering, and makes a perfect tight and cheap wall. It costs only from $2 to $3 (according to size) to cover House on the outside. Send for Circular and Sample, and see descriptive circular sent free.
